

İlkay Bülbül Biodata

İlkay Bülbül holds her BA and MA degrees in ELT and has over twenty years of experience in higher education institutions as a language instructor and lecturer. Between 2003-2024, she worked at the English Language Programs at İstanbul Bilgi University, where she taught EAP courses as well as General English classes at all levels and for all skills. She also worked in the curriculum and assessment offices of the Bilgi Preparatory Program for numerous years, mainly responsible for the exit level, as well as in the PD Unit as a teacher trainer. She served as a member of the Steering Committee during the initial CEA (Commission on English Language Program Accreditation) accreditation of the Bilgi Preparatory Program, and then, as the Steering Committee Coordinator during the CEA reaccreditation process. Since 2021, she has been volunteering as the accreditation coordinator overseeing accreditation processes, a trained and experienced peer reviewer, and a reviewer trainer under The Association for Language Education, Evaluation and Accreditation (DEDAK). She is also a trained CEA reviewer. She is currently working at Sabancı University School of Languages as an instructor.